Re : Fire Accident on board vessel at A2 Terminal, LCH Port.

Dear : Valued Customer,

Due to the Fire accident on board vessel at A2 on May 25 – am, there were containers fallen into the sea in front of A2 terminal, it will be risky navigation if there are any vessels passed without any exact location of these boxes. Hence, LCH Port Authority and Marine Department, Pilot Bureau have announced that there will be no vessel allowed to pass by to Terminal A2, A1, A0, B1 and B2 until the undersea survey has been done.

The following services of ONE Thailand have impacted from this accident:

Service :-

JTV3 AS Penelope V.921N (ETA/D Lch May 28)

Remark : ONE Thailand will confirm the Terminal asap.

AUS MOL Guardian V.911S (ETA/D Lch May 30/Jun 1)

Remark : ONE Thailand will confirm the Terminal asap.

For non-mentioned vessels/services will be operated as normal.

We will closely monitor the situation and will timely update if there is any change.

Yours Faithfully,

OCEAN NETWORK EXPRESS (THAILAND) LTD.
